Propaganda --

Italy -- I may go down the drain, but I will take France with me, blub, blub, blub. Or, if the ALL-POWERful ruler of Austria-Hungary sees fit, I will out-last France. If I do out-last France, what does the Oracle say?

St. Petersburg (12 Aug '11) -- The Tzar has dealt severely with the treacherous Franco.. The ungrateful fool dared to betray the nation responsible for its resurrection. And for what? He had no hope of bettering himself. I had offered to make him the second greatest power in Europe, only to be surpassed by my deserving Russia. By attempting to trick me he could only aid Austria, not himself. At least Austria is an honest, brave opponent, but the French leader, who proves himself untrustworthy without cause, will suffer the fate he deserves.

Propaganda --

Germany -- Flanked by the Ambassadors from Italy and Turkey, the Chancellor waved a sheet of paper above his head last night and said, "Peace in our time!" After a whispered consultation with his colleagues he went on to say that these two great and honorable countries had decided to throw their weight behind the cause of right. Soon war in Europe will be ended and the French restored to their usual state of peaceful content instead of this fevered condition in which we now see them. "They are sick men", he said with sorrow, "but we will show them every kindness possible, and our Marshall Plan (Field-Marshal, that is) will cure them soon." ~~####~~ It is now confirmed that the Russian Ambassador has said his country will not ~~oppose~~ the forces of the Greater German Reich, desiring only peace and a speedy ending to hostilities. * It will aid us not one jot; indeed, to bring the wrath of the Supreme Alliance down upon our heads would be foolishness. No, since we have been promised all possible aid in future wars if we abstain in this one, we will lay down our arms."

[* The following sentence was inadvertantly (meaning, in our haste we goofed) omitted from this position in the propaganda: "We see no use in attacking the German units now occupying parts of our country."/

Marseilles -- After a long forced march, the 6th Army, with help from the 5th Fleet, kicked the Germans out of our city. The routed German army is said to be hiding in the Pyrenees.

Rumania -- The Supreme Commander was pleased with the success of his surprise attack on the French army in Rumania. He felt that the key to victory against the three enemies would be to keep all three off balance by attacking in odd fashion towards unexpected military targets. His pleasure was dimmed, however, by the letter he held in his hands from the President. In the letter, the President had ordered him to leave Rumania in search of a new center. The President, thought the Supreme Commander, was trying to run the war! He, the greatest General in Turkish history could not allow himself to be told what to do by a stupid bureaucrat! He refused to obey the President's orders. Instead, he would attack Serbia! Surely, the President knew that we must keep the Russians in Sevastopol as a buffer force. If we were there, we would run into problems--not having the middle defended, and also being exposed to all the enemy's forces. NO! The President was a stupid leader! The Supreme Commanders thoughts became ominous as he considered the idea of overthrowing the stupid President's government. Ah! I have a plan, he thought. I will implement this for the greater glory of Turkey! What plan does the great General have in mind? Stay tuned!

Supply Centers held at end of F'09 (no AUT retreats) --

FRA -- Rum, Bud, Tri, Vie, Tun, Bre, Mar, Par, Por, Spa, Lvp, Lpp (remove two units; one was dest. F'09). (9)
 GER -- StP, War, Nwy, Swe, Bel, Hol, Ber, Kie, Mun, Den, Edi, Mos, Lon (may build two units). (13)
 ITA -- Per, Nap, Rom, Ven, Gre, Tri, Vie (may build two units). (6)
 RUS -- Mos, Sev (stands pat; has only one unit on board). (1)
 TUR -- Ank, Con, Smy, Bul, Per, Ser (stands pat). (5)

Deadline for W'09 builds/removals -- Noon, Tues., Feb. 13. (S'10 moves would also be appreciated by Feb. 13, but are not required.)

GM Note -- We had originally planned to end DPBA with #105, and complete the games in THE GAMESLETTER; but the bi-weekly (and sometimes erratic) schedule of that publication (plus a lack of space until reportage on Fischer/Spasky Match is concluded) made this inadvisable. So, we will continue with this skeleton version of the former DPBA until the remaining four games are completed. (We'll fill empty space with general material to bring the 'zine up to an even number of pages, but no more 10-page issues.) After that, we may or may not run one or two Regular games in TGL, depending upon the state, at that time, of our publishing equipment and our eyes. ##### All subs to and trades for DPBA terminated with #105 (not yet published). Anyone wishing to receive future issues of DPBA by subscription must subscribe to TGL; one issue will be deducted from his TGL sub for ea. issue of DPBA sent (this way, we'll only have to keep track of one sub). A very few trades for the remnant of DPBA will also be accepted (in cases where alternative trade of TGL and possibly TG is less than enough for the zine(s) you are sending us, and special arrangement has been made with us for you to continue to receive DPBA); but in most cases the bi-weekly TGL should be enough to match most trades.

The Players -- All players should still have ea. others' addresses from past rosters; however, if any of you need any of the others' address, ask and we'll send it to you with #108. The few remaining players are: Ackerman (QIC; receives DPBA via air-mail sub, since he is overseas player); Beyerlein (QFC, QIC); Boyer (QIC); Calabria (QFC, QHC); D.Cochran (QGC); A.Miller (QHC; air-mail deposit on hand); Naus (QGC, QIC; became player via trade for A.D.A.G. et al, rather than via fee); Phillips (QHC; player via trade for SHAAFT!!); Power (QHC); Rosamilia (QFC & Bourse); Tonnesen (QGC, QHC, QIC); Ver Ploeg (Bourse, via trade for PLATYPUS PIE; if he misses one more session, he will be out of Bourse, and trade for DPBA will revert back to trade for TGL; if he remains in Bourse, trade for DPBA will again replace trade for TGL). ##### Traders (receive both DPBA and TGL, unless otherwise stated): Boardman (for GRAUSTARK); Buchanan (for HOOSIER ARCHIVES); Calhamer (for HYPERMODERN; DPBA only); Feron (for MOESHOESHOE, et al); Games Research (Complimentary copy; DPBA only); Labelle (for ANTARES & PELLUCIDAR); Von Metzke (for COSTAGUAMA, et al). Note also that Phillips receives both TGL and DPBA, Ver Ploeg DPBA only. ##### Subbers (one issue on TGL sub for ea. issue of DPBA): Alderson; Hull (receives all issues by virtue of his having purchased last complete set of all Miller Dippyazines, rather than as TGL subber); also players Ackerman (overseas airmail) and Scholz (was in Bourse; will receive no more issues after this one, as he is two issues (34¢) in arrears). This is also lastish for former player and trader Dix, who is out of QIC. ##### All other former traders for DPBA are now receiving TGL only in trades, in lieu of DPBA.

Replacement Players -- QFC, None; QGC: Beyerlein; QHC: Naus, Beyerlein; QIC: None.

Miscellaneous: GM is D.Miller, address below (ph. 301-933-5417; call only Mon. or Thurs. between 9 & 10 pm, EST). ## DPBA #105 half run-off, but emergency publisher goofed in pagination and we're going to have to break a piece of it off....
